

SEVENTEENTH DAY.

(Tuesday, February 17, 1931.)

The House met at 9:30 o'clock a. m., and was called to order by Speaker Minor.

HOUSE BILL NO. 398 ON PASSAGE TO ENGROSSMENT.

The Speaker laid before the House, as pending business, on its passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 398, A bill to be entitled "An Act making certain emergency appropriations out of the general revenue of the State of Texas for the several institutions and departments of State government named herein, for the balance of the fiscal year ending August 31, 1931, and declaring an emergency."

The bill having been read second time on yesterday, with amendment by Mr. Westbrook pending.

Mr. Kennedy offered the following substitute for the amendment:

Substitute amendment to amendment to House bill No. 398, on page 2, line 12, substitute "$1,500" for "$500."

Mr. Albritton moved to table the substitute amendment.

Yeas and nays were demanded, and the motion to table prevailed by the following vote:

Reason for Vote.

I vote "no" because I think we should refrain from buying new furniture at this time when the bread line continues to grow.

MRS. STRONG.

The Speaker announced that the motion to reconsider was lost.

Mr. Sanders offered the following (committee) amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 398 by adding to the item for John Tarleton Agricultural College, Stephenville, Texas, the following, "to pay general maintenance $5,000.00."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Tarwater offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 398, page 2, by inserting between lines 12 and 13 the following, "equipment for Weights and Measures Division including the purchase of two cars, $2,500.00."

Mr. Keller offered the following amendment to the amendment:

Amend amendment by providing that no more than $1000.00 shall be spent for any one automobile.

Mr. Holder offered the following substitute for the amendment to the amendment:

Substitute for the amendment by providing that not more than $600 may be paid for any one automobile.

Question first recurring on the substitute amendment, yeas and nays were demanded.

The substitute amendment was lost by the following vote:

Mr. Kayton offered the following substitute for the amendment by Mr. Keller:

Amend substitute to read, "to purchase of two cars and equipment for Weights and Measures Department, $2,000.00."

Mr. Tarwater raised a point of order on further consideration of the amendment by Mr. Kayton, on the ground that the substitute amendment is not germane to the pending amendment by Mr. Keller:

The Speaker sustained the point of order.

Question then recurring on the amendment by Mr. Keller, yeas and nays were demanded.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas, February 17, 1931.

Hon. Fred H. Minor, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate
has passed the following:

S. B. No. 54, A bill to be entitled
"An Act amending Articles 921 and 922 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of Texas, relating to the method of determining the issue of insanity after a defendant has been convicted of crime, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 53, A bill to be entitled
"An Act authorizing defendants in felony cases less than capital offenses, upon entering a plea of guilty
and with the consent and approval of the court and the State's attorney, to waive the right of a trial by a
jury and to be tried by the court;
amending Articles 11, 12 and 658 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of Texas, so as to make them conform to such right, enacting an article to be known as Article 776a, Code of Criminal Procedure, so as to permit the court under certain conditions and in certain cases to suspend the sentence of the defendant; repealing all laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith, and declaring an emergency."

Respectfully,

JOHN B. DuPRIEST,
Assistant Secretary of the Senate.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ENGROSSED BILLS.

Committee Room,

Austin, Texas, February 16, 1931.

Hon. Fred H. Minor, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: Your Committee on Engrossed Bills, to whom was referred

H. B. No. 397, A bill to be entitled "An Act making appropriation to cover deficiencies in appropriations heretofore made for the support of the Judiciary Department of the State government of the State of Texas for the fiscal years ending August 31, 1923, 1925, 1927, 1928, 1929 and 1930, and declaring an emergency,"

Have carefully compared same and find it correctly engrossed.

JUSTISS, Chairman.

SEVENTEENTH DAY.

(Wednesday, February 18, 1931.)

The House met at 9:30 o'clock a. m., and was called to order by Speaker Minor.

BILLS ORDERED NOT PRINTED.

(By Unanimous Consent.)

On motion of Mr. Gilbert, House bills Nos. 317 and 321 were ordered not printed.

On motion of Mr. Johnson of Dimmit, House bill No. 647 was ordered not printed.

On motion of Mr. Hardy, Senate bill No. 84 was ordered not printed.

HOUSE BILL NO. 398 ON PASSAGE TO ENGROSSMENT.

The Speaker laid before the House, as pending business, on its passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 398, A bill to be entitled "An Act making certain emergency appropriations out of the general revenue of the State of Texas for the several institutions and departments of State government named herein, for the balance of the fiscal year ending August 31, 1931, and declaring an emergency."

The bill having been read second time on yesterday.

Mr. Magee offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 398, page 2, after line 9, by inserting "for salaries and expenses of inspection and eradication of sweet potato weevil and other pests, $3,000.00, and for the protection of the sweet potato industry."

Question recurring on the amendment, yeas and nays were demanded.

The amendment was lost by the following vote:
